Stationers' Company Warrants for 2020

The Stationers Company Warrant was introduced in 2014 and takes us back to our roots as a Livery Company in recognising and promoting excellent products and services. On 9 December 2019 at Stationers' Hall the Master, Trevor Fenwick announced that the following companies had had their warrants renewed:

- Office Power for their bespoke and easy to use technology enabling dealers to run their entire business from a single platform
- Brown Fox for their range of fine stationery
- Collins Debden for their leather and wool bound diaries
- Manuscript Pen Company for their ML 1856 fountain pen
- Gopak for its Ultralight Staging and
- Victor Stationery for their Rhino note books

Liveryman Christine Geer, Chairman of the Warrants Committee said "I am delighted to take over as Chair of this Committee and congratulate today's warrant recipients. Although my own experience is within the Office Products Sector of the Stationers' Company we will be looking to broaden the depth and breadth of Sectors that the Warrants programme represents. The submission programme for the 2021 Warrants will be launched during Q2 of 2020."
