Stationers' Hall will be hosting a three-course lunch following Common Hall on Tuesday, 29 September 2020.

Why not come to London and combine exercising your right to vote at Common Hall with a fabulous lunch at Stationers' Hall? Please note that only those who were made Liverymen before 1 May 2019 are eligible to vote.

We are delighted that the main candidate going forward for election this year is Alderman Vincent Keaveny, a Liveryman of the Stationers' Company.

Vincent Keaveny is a partner at international law firm, DLA Piper LLP. He advises banks and companies throughout the UK and Europe on banking and finance matters. Vincent is also a director/ trustee of the contemporary music ensemble, Exaudi, and the theatre company, Actors Touring Company. He was for several years a trustee of a leprosy-related charity. Vincent was Master (2014/15) of the City of London Solicitors' Company and is also a member of the Court of the Woolmen's Company. He served on the Committee of the City of London Law Society from 2006 to 2013 and was President of the Society in 2014/15.

This event is open to all Liverymen of the Stationers' Company and fellow Liverymen from other Livery Companies. Voting passes are available from the office on request.

Please book your tickets online at www.stationers.org/events or alternatively fill in the form below and send it in, with a cheque, to the address below. If you require further information please contact Lucie McCord at admin@stationers.org or call 0207 246 0982.
